

J.P. Concert Review

Ottawa boy comes back to town!!

The one and only extra-ordinary songwriter, Paul Anka performed live for the many screaming fans that came out to see him live at Casino Rama on Wednesday, July 26, 2000.

What a terrific show! Paul Anka, together with his explosive 16-piece band and his 12 gorgeous back up singers, simply overwhelmed the crowd. The sound was breathtaking. He not only had the crowd standing and dancing for most of the night, but he also gave himself to the fans with every song he performed.

The sexy and handsome Ottawa boy entered the stage looking like a million bucks dressed in a jet-black 2-piece suit with an open white shirt and singing 'Diana'. The crowd went ballistic! No one in the crowd remained sitting. The women were screaming and crying just like the old Dick Clarke days of the sixties.

Throughout his performance, Anka walked among the crowd giving his all for the fans. Women fans were treated to hugs and kisses while he performed some of his most memorable hits. He did it all 'His Way' after his song 'Diana', by paying tribute to the 'Chairman of the Board', Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr. in memory of his parents, Anka regaled the audience with one of the most beautiful songs I've ever heard him sing. The song which can be found on his new 2000 album, literally brought tears to the eyes of thousands of fans in attendance. That song alone was worth the price of his new 2000 album.

The magic in the air was spectacular! The electricity that Paul Anka created in the building that evening was truly amazing and un-forgettable. The gracious and talented Ottawa boy performed more than 20 songs with a show that lasted more than 2 hours long. Paul Anka fans truly got their money's worth. As a proud Canadian boy, you could tell how much he appreciated coming back to Canada. He kept constantly thanking his Canadian fans for all their support. What a fabulous human being. What showmanship, what a performer! Paul Anka, truly one of Canada's best entertainers's of all time.
