Backstreet Boys

Guess who's back in town..teenage idles Backstreet Boys are back!

Surprise, Surprise, another sold out show in Toronto, Canada for the 9th time. Canadian fans can't seem to get enough of the Backstreet Boys. In the past 18 months alone B.S.B has sold out 9 shows, 3 at the Air Canada Centre and another 6 at the Skydome.

A.J and the Boys were back and performing in concert at the Air Canada Center for 3 nights, with the first show beginning on Wednesday, September 12, 2001.

Unfortunately, the first show was kind of iffy do to the tragic events that took place in New York City the day before. Although the boys went on with the concert, it was nice to see the boys along with a full road crew of 150 people all come out on stage and pay tribute to all of those people who lost their lives and families the day before.

Other then this highlight, the band and concert was mediocre at best. As a matter of fact, their opening act Sisco, put on an overall better show.

The boys had 2 stages set up at each end of the arena with a flying stage bridge set up which they could run back and forth from one end to another.

Fortunately for the Backstreet Boys their loud and screaming teenage fans and their mom's helped drown out some of their flat vocals during the night. Not that any fans noticed.

Closing remarks, the concert at best was rated average.

JP rates this concert as follows

Stage Performance	9.
Vocals	7.
The band	9.
The sound system	9.
Stage set up video and pyro lighting	10.
Stage wardrobe	7.
Fan re-action	10.
Concert success	10.
