

MEDIA RELEASE

Toronto, Ontario, (February 22, 2011) /JP Public Relations/Newswire/Media Release/ --

Baby Kaylee Facing Life and Death Medical Crisis

Family spokesman, JP Pampena of JP Public Relations Inc. has been asked by Baby Kaylee's parents, Jason Wallace and Crystal Vitelli, to hold an exclusive press conference with the latest life and death medical emergency facing their daughter. The press conference will be held tomorrow, Wednesday February 23, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at our offices at 1235 Bay Street, 4th Floor.

Baby Kaylee, who just celebrated her second birthday on February 6, 2011, is once again fighting for her life, this time in the face of a serious medical crisis that according to her parents may not have her surviving the month.

"We anticipate a tremendous amount of media at this press conference and therefore I highly stress that the media call our offices to register their attendance otherwise they will not be allowed in," states Mr. Pampena.

Media are asked to register their attendance by calling the offices of JP Public Relations Inc. at 416-638-4995.

Messages of support for Baby Kaylee may be posted on her Facebook Group Page:
